Prayer

Surprising God,
we who were outsiders are included around your table;

in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

Juli Mercer Stepping Down

Juli Mercer emailed a letter to the parish this week explaining her cancer diagnosis and explained with a road to recovery ahead of her she made the decision to step down from her role as Vicar's Warden. Juli has asked for your prayers for herself and her family. James Parkinson has agreed to step into the Vicar's warden's role and as this is a Vicar's appointment rather than an elected position this is now official.

Mission Shop

The Mission Shop team are preparing to reopen on Thursday 10th February at 10am until 2pm. At this stage the shop will only open on Thursdays, with volunteers limiting their time to two hour shifts.

If you may be able to help out please have a chat to Jenny Haggitt.

Vaccine Passes will be mandatory for both customers and volunteers.

Clergy House Painting

The Clergy House interior windows need to be painted. Do you have some time and energy and can wield a paint brush? If you are willing to help paint the interior windows we will be getting this done in the second week of March, ready for Kerry and Vaoa to arrive. We will need to arrange contractors if no help is forthcoming, so please write your name on the clipboard or contact the office if you can help.
