Fire Report

The recent fire on site was contained to the men's toilets in the Hall foyer and, although very messy, has only done superficial damage. We are working to get everything cleaned up as soon as possible, however these toilets will likely be out of action for some months.

It is a timely reminder that everyone's safety is our foremost consideration, so please identify your nearest exit and remember to leave by it in case of fire or other emergency. Assemble in the Ascot Ave car park, and if you have mobility issues the sidespeople will come and assist you to evacuate.
